(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 8.—The trial of 125 coal miners and operators on a charge of conspiracy to violate the Lever law by limiting production in an effort to boost prices was continued today to January 10 by Federal Judge A. B. Anderson.

The continuance was made on the motion of government prosecutors who claimed that alleged suppression of evidence by Attorney General Palmer had caused them to rearrange their plans at the last moment.

In granting the continuance Judge Anderson delivered an exhortation on Palmer. He accused Palmer of "coming strangely near of compounding a felony by his action, in instructing government prosecutors to eliminate facts."

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 8.—Power of Attorney General Palmer in ordering the suppression of acts in the government's case against 125 coal miners and operators charged with conspiracy to limit production, is to be thoroughly probed by Federal Judge A. B. Anderson, before whom the case was called, it was announced today.

"I don't care what becomes of this case," said Anderson, when Charles Evans Hughes, counsel for the miner, took exception to Anderson's statement that the miners had flouted his strike injunction for thirty days.

"What I want to know is whether I am to be used as a mere 'puppet' by the representatives from Washington," Anderson said.

"I want to know by what power a United States law officer acts when he can order pertinent facts suppressed in a government case?" Anderson quizzed Daniel Simms,

BARN AND CONTENTS ARE LOST IN BLAZE

Two Automobiles, Horse, Several

Destroyed in Fire

LIEU O'NEAL'S BARN BURNS

A large barn on the Lieu O'Neal farm, just west of Rushville on the Indianapolis pike, was destroyed by fire Saturday midnight, and for a time the residence was threatened. The loss is placed at $10,000 and is partially covered with insurance.

The origin of the fire is undetermined, and was first noticed by neighbors in that vicinity. The barn was a large frame structure, and one portion was used as a garage. Two automobiles, a horse, 4 or 5 tons of hay, farming implements, including a threshing separator, and new electric light plant which was only recently installed, were burned.

A cow, which was also in the barn, succeeded in making its escape. A large hen house which was located west of the barn, in the orchard, also caught fire and was destroyed. The exact number of chickens lost is not known as Mrs. O'Neal had approximately 200, and many of these could not be found.

One of the automobiles destroyed belonged to Earl Winship, and the other one to Mr. O'Neal. Mr. Winship's loss is total, while Mr. O'Neal carried insurance on his machine.

The residence, which is located just north of the barn, was threatened and was badly scorched. The direction of the wind changed, and blew the flames westward, which caused the hen house to catch fire.

HARDING AT BROWNSVILLE

Crowds Line Streets to Get Glimpse
of President-Elect

(By United Press)

Brownsville, Texas, Nov. 8.—President-elect and Mrs. Harding and their party were taken to luncheon at the country club near here upon his arrival here today.

Crowds massed along the sidewalks to see the next executive of the United States. There were no prepared demonstrations, Harding having announced that he wanted to take no part in any formal affair.

Midsummer weather prevailed here today. After the luncheon the presidential party left for Point Isabel in an automobile, the president-elect being scheduled to be at the R. B. Creagor cottage this afternoon.

NOVEMBER TERM JURIES ARE DRAWN

Special Venue Likely to be Selected
Later For Dunn Murder Trial
Opening Monday

VACATION WEEK IN COURT

With circuit court quiet this week being in vacation between the September and November terms, the clerk's office will be busy arranging for the opening of the new term, and in closing the books of the term which ended Saturday.

Following the usual custom, the jurors for the new term which begins next Monday, were chosen this morning by the jury commissioners. Both juries, the petit and grand, are always drawn on Monday before the new term opens. In all probability an extra number will be drawn toward the latter part of the week, to serve in case they are needed for the murder trial of the state against Fred Dunn.

The petit jurors, as drawn this morning, consist of the following twelve men: William P. Henley, Ripley; Charles O. Kennedy, Ripley; M. O. Sefton, Noble; Henry Hungerford, Anderson; L. A. Hall, Washington; John Ricketts, Noble; Charles V. Carr, Walker; Thomas C. Gray, Ripley; Albert Branam, Rushville; John F. Boyd, Rushville; George R. Conway, Ripley and Seth Moor, Rushville.

The six names drawn for grand jury service are as follows: Cyrus Hilligoss, Orange; William M. Jackson, Washington; Pat Gilligan, Rushville; John L. Clark, Center; William H. Glendenning, Posey and Sabert Offutt, Posey.

WATSON TO SPEAK AT KENTLAND RALLY

Will Also Address Ratification Celebrations at Knightstown and Cambridge City

BOTH SCHEDULED TONIGHT

Senator James E. Watson will divide his time tonight between Knightstown and Cambridge City, where the republicans will ratify, and will go to Kentland Tuesday for a big celebration which will be held by the fellowtownsmen of Warren M. McCray for the governor-elect of Indiana.

Senator Watson was here for a few hours Sunday afternoon and regretted his inability to stay longer, but expects to be back in Rushville the latter part of this week.

Mrs. Watson was expected from Washington today and will accompany the senator tonight and tomorrow. He will speak at both Cambridge City and Knightstown tonight and has been invited to make the principal address at Kentland Tuesday afternoon. The Purdue university band will play at the Kentland celebration.

PLAN CAMPAIGN TO IMPROVE SCHOOLS

Attention Has Been Drawn to Issue
by Recent Survey Showing Indiana in 17th Place

WILL BE HELD THIS WEEK

Differences of Schools of State are
Largely Due to Fact That Not
Enough Money is Provided

The school authorities in Indiana are arranging for the campaign which is to be conducted November 7-16 with the view of improving the educational standards in this state. Attention has been drawn to this campaign by the recent survey which showed that Indiana schools had dropped to seventeenth place in the states of the union.

According to a recently completed survey of the schools of the state, Indiana does not maintain general and uniform system of schools equally open to all as provided by the constitution of the state. The schools of the cities are shown to be in most cases superior to those of the country both in length of school term and the equality of the teachers. This works a great injustice upon the children of the rural districts. It is one of the purposes of the educational campaign to awaken a realization of this and to start measures for the improvement of conditions.

The deficiencies of the schools of the state, the report shows, are largely due to the fact that not enough money is provided for school purposes. With more money longer school terms could be provided for the rural pupils. With more money better salaries could be paid rural teachers and they would not go to the city schools as soon as they have become experienced. More money would provide better equipment to rural schools. More money would build schools where they would be equally accessible to all.

The present system of raising the school funds in this state is said to be largely responsible for the inequality and inefficiency of the school system. During the school year of 1919-1920 only 14 per cent. of the money expended on the schools came from state sources, leaving 86 per cent of the burden of supporting the school system upon local school corporations. It is pointed out that it is an impossible task to maintain a uniform system under this plan.

The distribution of wealth in Indiana is so unequal that some counties of the state are able to raise large school funds with a low rate of taxation while other counties are unable to raise sufficient funds with the maximum tax rate in effect. To illustrate: One county has taxable property to the amount of $697,533,240 while another has but $5,893,975; that is, where there is the amount of $119 of taxables in the former county, there is but $1 of taxables in the latter. Some corporations are able to maintain their schools with a local tuition tax of five cents on each $100 of taxables, while other townships are unable to maintain their school for the minimum term upon a tax of 75 cents, the legal maximum. This condition requires one citizen of Indiana to bear a tax burden fifteen times greater than that borne by another citizen for the education of his children.

It is explained that the proposed plan to equalize the tax burden would not increase the tax rate for school purposes in this county, but that Indianapolis and the larger cities of the state would feel the burden. He explained that the children in rural communities which are unable to maintain the best of schools are entitled to the same advantages that are afforded children in the cities and towns.

School authorities believe that if the state assists all schools for probably one-third or one-half of the total cost the money to be available only when certain standards are met, each community will be quick to take advantage of the assistance and as a result more uniform standards will be maintained throughout Indiana.

ROLL CALL SUNDAY IS OBSERVED HERE

Ministers Refer to Fourth Annual
Effort to Renew Memberships
In The Red Cross

CALL TO SERVICE ISSUED

Letter to Chairmen and Secretaries
of Auxiliaries of County Urges
Active Support

Special reference to the fourth annual Red Cross Roll Call was made by Rush county ministers in their pulpits yesterday, all of them who referred to it urging the united support of the people for the organization which accomplished so much during the war and is equipped for service in peace times.

The Rev. L. E. Brown, president of the Rush county chapter, made the request of all Rushville ministers and auxiliary officials were urged to present the matter to the pastors in their community so that Roll Call Sunday would not pass unnoticed in Rush county.

The Roll Call officially opens on Thursday, Armistice Day, the second anniversary of the cessation of hostilities and closes on Thanksgiving Day. The Red Cross officials two milestones in American history as the opening and ending of the Roll Call because the Red Cross is so clearly a patriotic enterprise which calls for the support of all citizens.

The following letter has been addressed to the chairmen and secretaries of the county auxiliaries by Mrs. Marian Jones, secretary, urging their active co-operation in the Roll Call:

To the Chairmen and Secretaries of the Auxiliaries of the Rush County Chapter of the American Red Cross:

The American Red Cross annual Roll Call will be conducted this year from November 11, Armistice Day, to November 25, Thanksgiving day.

The peace program of the Red Cross is varied and important, and you are requested and urged to make special effort to secure the renewal of the membership of every person whose name appears on the roster of your auxiliary.

The importance of continuing the humanitarian work of the Red Cross is apparent in the aftermath of war. To relieve the distress of men who are suffering from injuries received or were broken in health while serving their country when the world was on fire, and to aid their families, is the mission of the Red Cross.

On account of conditions over which the organization has no control and because of a lack of available nurses, the Rush county chapter has not been able to carry out the program of activities in the local field. But much has been accomplished through the Home Service branch of the organization in aiding returned soldiers and their families, and in furnishing supplies for destitute people, especially children, in the war-wrecked and devastated countries of Europe, where the call for further service is strong and insistent.

In order to carry out the big program prepared by the organization, a general renewal of memberships is necessary. Make your plans to give some time to this roll call, and give it as wide publicity as possible.

It is not the intention to conduct as intensive a campaign this year as was carried on during the war, but every member should be given an opportunity to renew his allegiance, and contribute his dollar to this humanitarian cause. The Red Cross deserves a hearty response to this invitation to annual membership.

Mrs. Marian Jones, secretary; Miss Nora Sleeth and Miss Anna Bohannon, members of the executive committee of the Rush county chapter, have been appointed a special committee with headquarters in the recorders office in the court house to direct the Roll Call. Information concerning the drive can be obtained from this committee.

FORTNER IS RECOVERING

Stillwater, Okla., Man Who Stepped
Off Moving Car Improving

Lovell Fortner of Stillwater, Okla. who stepped off a moving I. & C. traction car near the first stop east of Glenwood last Thursday evening, was reported today to be slowly recovering at the Memorial hospital in Connersville where he was taken following the accident.

Mrs. Lizzie Stevens of Orange and Mrs. Ozro Stevens, living near Orange, sisters of Mr. Fortner, were at his bedside Sunday, and stated today that physicians saw no reason why he should not get well.

Mr. Fortner sustained a broken bone in his neck. He formerly resided in the Orange neighborhood and was on his way for a visit with his sisters when the accident happened.

LIFT CHURCH DEBT DEDICATION SUNDAY

Members of Glenwood M. E. Congregation Pledge $8,500, Leaving
Balance of $1,500 Over Cost

BISHOP L. D. LEETE SPEAKS

Fifteen hundred dollars more than enough to pay off the church debt was raised at the formal dedication of the new house of worship just completed by the Methodist Episcopal congregation of Glenwood, Sunday. Immense crowds attended all three of the services and six hundred persons were served at noon in the basement by the Ladies Aid society. The society also served supper.

Bishop L. D. Leete of the new Indiana area recently created, preached at the morning service and in the afternoon Dr. J. M. Walker of this city, district superintendent, delivered the sermon. In the evening Dr. Walker preached at the dedicatory ceremony.

The church was erected at a cost of $31,000, construction having been started last April, and $24,000 had been subscribed to pay for it before the dedication. Yesterday $8,500 was pledged, which leaves a balance of $1,500. The Christian and United Presbyterian congregations of Glenwood helped in a definite way toward reaching the goal.

The church is a brick veneer building of twelve rooms, equipped to take care of the Sunday school and athletic needs of the young people of the congregation. It is heated with steam and lighted with electricity. The Rev. F. T. Taylor is beginning his second year as pastor.

MRS. SARAH A. CARR DIED THIS MORNING

Senility Causes Death of Woman 84
Years Old Who is Well Known
in This City

FUNERAL SERVICES TUESDAY

Mrs. Sarah A. Carr, age 84 years, died this morning about eight o'clock at her home just west of Rushville on the Arlington road, after being ill for several weeks, with a complication of diseases related to senility.

Mrs. Carr was well known in Rushville on the Arlington road, after residing here or 25 years. She was born and reared in Illinois and spent a great portion of her life in Iowa, later moving to a farm, which is at the western edge of Rushville. The deceased is survived by four sons, Charles, who made his home with his mother; Owen L. Carr of this city; Perry Carr of Cincinnati, and Ira Carr of Miami, Fla. All four of the sons were at her bedside when she died.

The funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock at the late residence, and burial will be made in the cemetery at Arlington.

CLOSE BUSINESS OF FISCAL YEAR

Officers and Directors of Rush Co.
Farmers' Association in
Session Here

DISCUSS STATE MEETING

Special Car on I. & C. Will be Obtained if Fifty Passengers Are Guaranteed

The officers and board of directors of the Rush County Farmers' association met Saturday afternoon to complete the business of the fiscal year, so that complete reports of the year's business can be made at the annual meeting which will be held December 13.

Besides the usual routine business, the matter of the annual state convention at Indianapolis next week was discussed. There seems to be a great deal of interest in the state meeting and it is expected that a large delegation of members from this county will attend. The officers of the local association have expressed the hope that every farmer who can possibly do so, attend the meeting.

The local cream buying situation was discussed at length and the matter referred to a special committee for disposal.

The Rush County Farmers association is considering the matter of arranging for a special I. & C. car for the accommodation of the delegation of farmers who will attend the state convention at Indianapolis next Monday.

A special car can be obtained if the association will guarantee fifty passengers, which number the officers of the association feel confident they will be able to guarantee. The fare for the trip, if a special car is obtained, will be much below the regular fare.

It is desired that Rush county send as large a delegation to the meeting as possible and the officials request all members who expect to make the trip to call the county agent's office and reserve a ticket for the special car, not later than Friday noon.

CORN SHOW SET FOR FIRST WEEK IN 1921

Committee Prepares Premium List
and Also Offers Cash Prizes
For Women's Exhibit

SHOW WILL LAST TWO DAYS

The first steps towards the big Rush County Corn Show were taken when the executive committee met here Saturday afternoon. The first week in January was determined upon as the best time for the show and it was decided that the exhibit would be held two days.

In making up the premium list and figuring the distribution of the county prize money, the committee succeeded in making up a very attractive prize list for the corn show and found they still had money left. This extra money the committee decided, would be used for cash prizes for a women's exhibit, to be held in connection with the corn exhibit.

A poultry show for the women was discussed, but it was feared that a place to have such an exhibit could not be found. In view of this difficulty, the committee favored an exhibit of bread, cakes and butter, which they thought would be a source of great interest among the ladies of the county.

A committee composed of Will Brown, John W. Mauzy and Donald D. Alexander were appointed to work out the details for the corn exhibit. Mrs. Bert Davison was appointed to head the committee of ladies who will have charge of the women's department, the other members of the committee to be named by Mrs. Davison.

PRODUCTION OF CATTLE IN WEST

Investigations Conducted in Nebraska Show Wide Variation in Figures.

FEEDING PERILOUS VENTURE

According to cost of production investigations conducted by the United States department of agriculture in co-operation with the University of Nebraska in parts of Nebraska during the past two years, the average cost of corn-fed cattle laid down at market was $14.91 per hundredweight for 2,293 head fed in the winter of 1918-19, $13.83 for 3,041 cattle in a survey study during the winter of 1919-20, and an average of $13.39 for an additional 795 cattle upon which detailed cost figures were secured during the same winter. The costs upon some droves were found to vary widely from these average figures, with the major portion going to market the first winter (1918-19) carrying an expense bill of from $13 to $18 a hundredweight, while in 1919-20 the costs of most of the cattle were between $11 and $17. The facts thus far brought out by the investigation would indicate that during the past two years, in the district covered by the survey, cattle feeding was a precarious venture, more likely to be unprofitable than not. There was an average loss per head of $3.17 on the cattle for which records were obtained in 1918-19, and of $10.69 and $14.57 on two groups for which records were obtained in 1919-20.

These figures are the results of the first two years' work of a five-year study of the basic factors of the cost of fattening cattle, which is being conducted in Nebraska by the office of farm management and farm economy.

Good Pastures and Good Stock Are Essential for Profitable Beef Production.

ies, in co-operation with the University of Nebraska and the bureau of animal industry, United States department of agriculture. Similar studies are being conducted in Iowa, Missouri, Illinois and Indiana, and preliminary reports on the work in these states will be forthcoming shortly.

Feeding Plays Minor Part.

The greater part of the Nebraska cattle covered in the survey work of 1918-19 made their gains at a cost of from 20 to 35 cents per pound, with extremes ranging from 12 to 48 cents, while of the cattle covered the next year the greater part made their gains at from 15 to 35 cents per pound, with an extreme range of from 8 to 53 cents. While economical feeding is shown to be the major factor in the cost of fattening after the steer is bought, the investigation substantiates the fact that feeding usually plays a minor part in determining profit or loss, and that buying right and selling right are more often the controlling factors.

The cattle in question were bought at about the same figures in both years of the investigation. In 1918-19 three of the droves were bought at between $6 and $7, but most of the cattle covered in the study went into the lot at between $8 and $12. Of the 21 droves covered by the detailed cost-accounting method, 11 cost between $10 and $11. The weight of the feeders varied rather widely, averaging about 750 pounds with but few over 1,000 pounds or under 500.

Feed, the most important factor of the cost of fattening the steer after purchase, was found to constitute from 75 to 90 per cent of all the expense involved in handling the steers after being put on feed.

Wide Variation in Cost-Factors.

The wide variation in the factors affecting cost was reflected in the equally wide variation in the total cost of the finished cattle. During both of the years of the study the cost of the cattle covered in the surveys ranged from about $8 to $22 per hundred head, the average for 1918-19 being $14.91, and for 1919-20, $13.83. The droves covered by the cost-accounting method showed a much narrower range, from $10 to $15 with an average of $13.39.

The financial return varied widely, ranging from $50 profit or more per head, reported for 40 head in 1918-19, to $50 or more per head loss, reported for 155 head in 1918-19 and for over 200 head in 1919-20. As has been stated above, on the average there was a loss incurred in handling cattle each year, reaching $14.57 per head as the average loss of the 795 cattle on the detailed route in 1919-20. However, a number of farmers carried their cattle through with profit.

former assistant attorney general; L. Ert Slack, special United States attorney, and Fred VanNugs, United States district attorney concerning correspondence they had with Palmer.

They testified that Palmer had ordered them to eliminate facts in the miners' trial occurring between April 1, 1919 and November 1, 1919 about which latter time the strike injunction against the coal miners was issued.

Palmer, according to C. B. Ames, former assistant attorney general, who represented Palmer here today, said that the attorney general considers the facts leading up to the issue in the injunction proceedings as a dead matter because of the miner's surrender.

Regarding the conference here between Anderson, Palmer and the latter's aid, Anderson said:

"Mr. Palmer considers that the miners have surrendered. I don't aim to state that they did not surrender but that I differ with him regarding who had made the surrender."

"I will not send bootleggers to jail and allow other men who are found guilty, go free," said Anderson.

"There is not a bit of truth in Palmer's statement that an understanding was reached when Palmer was here. The attorney general does not want to send these miners to jail," said Anderson.

Anderson planned to quiz Ames when the court reconvened this afternoon.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. For 17 years he used these tablets (a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil) in his private practice with great success.

They do all the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. No pains, no griping, no injury to the gums or danger from acid foods—yet they stimulate the liver and bowels. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." Note now they clear clouded brains and perk up the spirits.

When a Woman is Nervous—Worried

The lives of most women are full of worry. Men's troubles are bad enough, but women's are worse. Worry makes women sick. It pulls them down, and in their weakened condition they are subject to pains, aches, weakness, backaches, headaches and dizzy spells. Most women neglect their health, and for this they pay the penalty. Any woman will find that neglect does not pay. A little more attention to health would brighten up her life. If she asks her neighbors she finds that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription benefits a woman's whole system. It not only acts upon the troubles and weaknesses peculiar to women, but is an all-round tonic that braces the entire body, overcoming nervousness, sleeplessness, headaches, dizziness and a run-down condition.

MOUNT VERNON, ILL.—"I am glad to say that Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription proved just as good as it is advertised to be. I was weak and lacked strength and ambition. I had worked hard and was poorly. I used the 'Favorite Prescription' and it gave me new strength, and seemed to put new life in me. I was pleased that it did so much for me and I am very glad to recommend it."—MRS. WILL NEWBY, No. 1213 West Broadway.

NEW PRINCESS

TONIGHT AND TUESDAY

Tiger love—and the winner take all! No, merely a "small time" vaudeville act, and a tired girl yearning for the country.

Merely another "Apache" dance—a false step—another nurse's chart in a big hospital.

At last, the country—to save her life. A home! Friends! The wide, fresh fields.

A glow, unpainted, stealing into her face! Then love! One night, a note—with her heart breaking: "David dear I must go back. Good-bye"—Why.

JESSE L. LASKY PRESENTS

Ethel Clayton

A Paramount Picture in "A CITY SPARROW"

AMUSEMENTS

"A City Sparrow"—Princess

Kate Jordan's famous story, "A City Sparrow", forms the basis for Ethel Clayton's new Paramount picture, of the same name, which will be shown at the Princess Theatre Monday and Tuesday.

The picture presents Miss Clayton in the role of Milly West, a dancer in vaudeville and burlesque houses. After an accident which results in a declaration by her physician that she can never become a mother, she meets David Muir, a staunch countryman who persuades her to take a rest in the country.

A love romance soon develops and she consents to become the wife of Muir, but afterwards is awakened to his ardent love for children. Realizing that she can never make him happy as a wife, she starts for the city, but Muir finds her waiting for the train. She confides to him the reason for her conduct. He tells her he wants only her, and takes her in his arms.

The story contrasts the smoky city with the refreshing beauty and fragrance of the great outdoors. Walter Hiers has an excellent comedy role, Clyde Fillmore is leading man and William Boyd, Rose Cade, Robert Brower, Lillian Leighton, Bartine Burkett, an Sylvia Ashton are represented in the cast.

Drama of Russia at Mystic.

The star chamber sessions of the Russian soviet are relentlessly unveiled in "The Right to Happiness", the Universal photodrama of modern Russia which comes to the Mystic Theatre today.

The spectator sees the "comrades" and cohorts of the two principal Russian agitators in the chamber of deputies in Petrograd. Silk hatted envoys arrive from Berlin. They leave an issue of gold with the money-lusters and retire, confident of the support of the Russian radicals.

A girl skips lightly into the room, leaps to the marble rostrum and in flames the smouldering brains of the "comrades" by her creed of violence. Then she leaves Petrograd for New York as an envoy of destruction from leaders of the radicals.

How she finds her sister living in splendor in New York and how the whole fury of her heart is directed against her own father, who is known to her only as a stone-hearted money king, forms the theme of the unusual film drama.

Printzess Suits and Coats

Again we recommend the Printzess garments as the first character and quality to be found anywhere.

Your investigation will prove to you as it has to others that they represent the very last word in the finished garment art. It has always been our custom to sell the garments at a moderate price. Just now an investigation will prove their economy and the positive folly of risking the inferior.

Red Cross is Service

The Fourth annual Red Cross Roll Call is not a drive. It is a campaign.

It is not an effort to raise any specific sum.

The $1.00 dues of 10,000,000 people for 1921 are payable and this Roll Call is merely the organized activity of collection.

The American Red Cross, by its Congressional Charter, is officially designated for the following purposes:

"To furnish volunteer aid to the sick and wounded in time of war, in accordance with the treaty of Geneva.

"To act in matters of volunteer relief and as a medium of communication between the American people and their Army and Navy:

"To continue and carry on a system of national and international relief in time of peace and to apply the same in mitigating the sufferings by pestilence, famine, fire, floods and other great national calamities and to devise and carry on measures for preventing the same."—Act of Congress, Jan. 5, 1905.

Answer the Red Cross Roll Call November 11, Armistice Day, to November 25, Thanksgiving Day.

Think in Time

A word of caution even to the wisest is not amiss at times.

The season is approaching when all people will be making their Christmas purchases.

The fact that money has been plentiful for the past few years has not removed the element of caution from our home people, and neither has it blunted their desire for economy.

Caution dictates that we buy from a house that is known for its honesty and its willingness to guarantee the quality of its goods.

Economy requires that quality be proportionate to price.

The home dealer is known to you. He can not afford to sell you a shoddy or inferior article because it would come back to him. He can not afford to gouge you because it would put him out of business.

Both his honor and his business safety compel him to give you a square deal.

Think this over before the rush is on.

People who think twice before they buy once seldom make a mistake.

The farmer is raising Old Ned because the price of wheat is down, and the consumer is raising the devil because the price of flour is still up. Perhaps you can figure it out—but we pass.

We are solemnly assured by noted economists that Germany is becoming prosperous, and also that she is on the road to ruin. Well, between the two she ought to get somewhere.

The man who takes an interest in the welfare of his community soon finds that other people take an equal interest in him.

Want to know what your neighbor thinks of you? Just sit down and analyze your own conduct for the past year. That will tell the story.

"How do we understand the phases of the moon?" inquires an exchange. Some may, but we don't.

Benevolence is always skin deep. Sometimes it reaches as far as the pocketbook.

Are husbands always happy? Husbands enjoy all the comforts of a good home and incidentally learn to take as well as give in little family quarrels. Bachelors miss the scrapping privileges accorded bachelors. But, they both enjoy the wise and witty quips about hubby, shown in the popular film subject, "Topics of the Day." How true to life these wordings are, you may judge from the following "Topic" selections:

"Say, Joe, you ought to buck up and show your wife who is running things at your house". Henpeck, (sadly) "It isn't necessary. She knows."

LONDON ANSWERS
Husband—Didn't I telegraph you not to bring your mother with you?"
Wife—"That's what she wants to see you about!"

SASKATOON TELEGRAM
"Cheer up, old man; Why don't you drown your sorrow?"
"She's bigger than I am, and besides, it would be murder!"

LONDON (ENG). TIT-BITS
She (during the amarel—"You never deserved a wife like me."
He—"And I never deserved the rheumatism; but I got it just the same."

TORONTO (CANADA) WORLD
Officer—"Why are you rushing along with that bundle?"
"It's my wife's hat and I'm afraid the style will change."

WOMEN'S WEAR N. Y.
"So you are going to send your wife away to the country for a rest?"
"Yes, I need it badly."

THE CROW'S NEST.
"You haven't much on the menu. Still it doesn't matter—my wife is easily satisfied." Waiter: "If she's your wife she must be."

MEGGENDORFER BLAETER (MUNICH)

PERSHING ENDORSES RED CROSS ROLL CALL

It gives me real pleasure to pledge my hearts support to the Fourth Roll Call of the American Red Cross. While the opportunity for its greatest service comes during times of war, and its achievements during the late World War have been unparalleled, yet there is and perhaps there always will be a vital need for the humanitarian work which it renders. The present and former service men can never forget the Red Cross, not only for what it did for them during the war, but for what it is doing now in the Army Camps and Posts and whenever it is needed in assisting the ex-service men throughout the country. The value of the American Red Cross as a peace time organization can hardly be overestimated and we owe it our loyal support and active cooperation.

JOHN J. PERSHING, General.

RED CROSS NEWS

Wherever disaster strikes, the Red Cross responds with aid and succor to suffering humanity.

Last year in the U. S. the Red Cross aided more than 30,000 victims of flood, fire, tornado or other Disasters.

Do your part in this great cause by renewing your membership for another.

More than 26,000 men are still in hospitals as the result of the war. Your membership helps the Red Cross make their lives happier.

Last year in the United States the Red Cross aided more than 30,000 victims of flood, fire, tornado and other unavoidable disaster.

1,000,000 persons have learned the right way—the Red Cross way—of giving First Aid in time of accident.

92,000 women and girls last year under Red Cross nurses, completed courses of instruction in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick.

The American Red Cross in one month in 1920 helped 525,643 of the stricken people of Europe—423,888 adults and 101,755 children.

Last Night's Dreams

—What They Mean

DID YOU DREAM ABOUT ADAM AND EVE?

AMONG the modern scientific dream investigators one school, led by Freud, regards all dreams as having for their primal source a wish, which wish may be lying dormant, as it were, in the "psyche" of the dreamer without his being conscious in his waking hours that he possesses it. Another school of which Havelock Willis may be taken as a representative, regards only a portion of our dreams as "wish dreams" while a third rejects the wish theory altogether.

The Freudian school would explain a dream of Adam and Eve as the coming to life in our dream consciousness of a longing for a return to the state of innocence and bliss of our first parents, for paradise, as an attempt of the dream ego to "come to the guarded gate and softly smuggle through where the wraith of Eve lies red on the turf as she left it long ago." Ellis would accept this explanation with doubt while others would declare that the dream was only a more or less distorted recollection of something which we had seen, heard or read during the day.

The mystics, however, rejecting the theories of the scientists, boldly proclaim the prophetic symbolism of the dream. To them to dream of Adam and Eve means many good things coming to you, including a birth in the family. Adam seems to play the principal part in this dream. Watch his face. If he has a good-natured look success is yours in love and business. To the farmer it means abundant crops and high prices. It would appear as if most farmers had had this dream of late. If you have a lawsuit on hand you will win. If Adam looks displeased be very cautious in your affairs, for others are seeking to do you mischief, though by being careful you will get the better of them. Don't take a sea voyage for a month or two.

Singularly enough, perhaps from an association of the birthplace of the human race with our own, this dream is an omen that success is coming to you in your native town and you should not leave it for other scenes of activity. If you are away from your native town return there; for there lies your fortune.

It is a good dream anyway whether a dream-fulfilled longing for paradise or an omen of home and prosperity. (Copyright.)

TWO CONFERENCES INTEREST MEMBERS

Annual Meeting of Christian Churches of County Will be Held at Little Flatrock

AN INDIANAPOLIS SESSION

Two conferences of importance to members of the Christian churches of this county will be held this week and next week.

Of ranking interest is the annual county conference which will take place at the Little Flatrock church Wednesday, November 17, beginning at 9:45 a. m. It has been the custom to hold the conference in Rushville, but it was given to the Little Flatrock congregation.

Among the important addresses to be made at the county conference will be one by Rev. W. W. Sniff of Union City, Ind., former pastor of the Main Street church of this city. Several state workers will be present and speak.

There will be a joint conference of the eastern, western and central districts of the Indiana Christian Missionary Association held at the Central Christian church in Indianapolis Wednesday. The meeting will be started promptly at 10 a. m. All pastors, officers and members of the churches in this county are urged to attend this important meeting.

THE GIANTESS

ONCE there lived a Giant who had a daughter and, of course, she was a Giantess.

The Giant, like all others of his kind, carried off all the people that came in his path, but his daughter always managed, while her father was asleep, to rescue all the men, as she wished very much to get married.

She thought she might win a husband if she could keep him locked up long enough on bread and water, for she knew that men would promise anything when they wanted a good dinner.

But all the men she locked up had said they would starve before they would have for a wife the big daughter of a Giant.

Now the Giantess was a very vain person, and while she might have out any food for a whole day, and the next morning, when she was sure she was very hungry, she carried him with her own hands a very nice breakfast.

The Prince was wise, even if he had been reared in luxury, and he saw at once that the Giantess was very vain creature.

So he praised the food and told her, was sure she had cooked it, for no one but a beautiful woman could cook such dainty food.

Then he told her he had never seen such beautiful hair, and he wished he could see it at its full length, for he was sure that no lady of his father's court had hair that could be compared with hers.

This pleased the Giantess so much that she at once let down her wonderful hair, and the Prince exclaimed that nothing would make him happier but to have a thick lock of her tresses.

The Giantess was sure she had last won a husband, and she gladly cut from her head a heavy, long piece of her golden hair.

That night, when the Giantess and the Prince slept, the Prince fastened the hair to the window of the tower and let himself down to the ground and escaped to his home.

When the Giantess came in in the morning and found the Prince gone she was, of course, very angry, but when she saw her hair, which she had pretended to admire, had made ropes for him to escape, her anger knew no bounds.

She raved and tore her beautiful hair until her father, thinking she had lost her senses, ran down the mountain so fast that he forgot the ocean at the bottom, and plunged in and was lost.

The Giantess kept on tearing her hair until none was left, and when it was all gone from her head she began to shrivel up, and at last she became so small that the wind blew her away.

But on the edge of the mountain overhanging the Ocean, can be seen a face in the rock like that of a giant, with streaming hair, and on stormy nights the sailors always keep from that rock, for they can hear what sounds like the cries of the Giantess still bemoaning the loss of her Prince.

been pretty if she had been a person of ordinary size, she was almost funny to behold with her huge body.

There was one thing about her, though, and that was her hair, which fell around her in golden waves reaching to her feet.

One day her father brought in a Prince, intending to hold him until his father, a rich king, should offer his kingdom as a ransom for his son's return.

When the Giantess saw the handsome youth she made up her mind at once to carry him off to her tower and make him promise to marry her, for of all things she most wished to be a Princess.

So while her father was taking a nap she picked up the Prince in one hand and carried him away.

She first locked him in a room with-

His Wife Almost A Nervous Wreck

He tells how Dreco overcame cold sweats, heart fluttering, gastritis, headaches and roused a lazy liver, banished constipation.

"My wife Margaret was in such bad health that we were very much alarmed about her. She had cold sweats and heart weakness, and was so dizzy and unsteady on her feet that she didn't want to go out for fear she would fall," said Mr. J. N. Christianberry who resides at 1313 Liberty Ave., Terre Haute, Ind.

"Night meant one long line of terror for her; it was sometime before she could get to sleep, then her sleep was fitful, full of bad dreams and she would jump almost out of bed, awakening badly frightened. Her head ached so, along with a sick stomach that she just couldn't eat and what little she did eat wouldn't digest, but formed gas, she suffered from constipation daily.

"She had taken three bottles of Dreco which soothed her nerves until she sleeps like a tired child, eats and enjoys whatever she wants, having no bad after-effects and her bowels discharge the wastes of the body in a normal easy and regular manner. She has no more trouble with her kidneys and says she wants all the world to know that Dreco has made a woman of her."

All good druggists now sell Dreco and it is being especially introduced by F. B. Johnson & Co.—Adv.

INDEPENDENT TEAM WILL BE IN FIELD

I. O. O. F. Lodge Will Finance Basketball Team and Gymnasium Will be Modern

WORK WILL BEGIN SOON

Rushville will be represented again this winter with a strong independent basketball team, which will be supported and financed throughout the season by the I. O. O. F. lodge of this city. Work will begin some time next week on the remodeling of the Modern Appliance building in West Third street, where a modern gymnasium will be installed.

Two large stoves will be installed to insure a comfortable place to play in, and the goals will be so arranged that bleachers will be set up on all four sides, and will accommodate several hundred spectators.

Besides these changes, there will be two dressing rooms, and shower baths for the players, making the place equal to any gymnasium around here. The goals are to be reset, and will be suspended from the ceiling, with no back wall to interfere with the play. The circus seats will be elevated behind the two goals and along both sides of the building. High powered electric light bulbs will be used, so that the place will be brilliantly illuminated.

The team this year will be one of the strongest in this part of the state, and at present time the manager is working on a good schedule which will include the best teams in the state. The first game will probably not be played until the first week in December.

International Live Stock Show Will be Climax to Anything Resembling it

IN CHICAGO DECEMBER 1-4

Now that the State Fair circuit has been completed and the live stock shows of lesser magnitude announced for the current season have terminated with success in every instance, the industry is preparing for the greatest event of the year—the International Live Stock Exposition at Chicago during the first week of December. After such a successful display season of domestic animal life in every section of the United States, magnitude and interest are assured at this event.

The live stock industry is now recuperating after the stress of war period depletion all over the world. The international character of the Chicago event giving it trans-Atlantic and antipodean importance. An unusually large representation is promised by Great Britain, France, Italy, Canada, Argentina, Australia, and other countries—all potential markets for purebred cattle hogs and sheep produced in the United States. Feeding problems will be elucidated and the new feature inaugurated last year under the auspices of the Chicago Board of Trade—a grain and hay exhibit—will be on a vastly greater scale. All the breeds will be represented in the arena, the entire aggregation constituting the greatest assemblage of pure-bred live stock ever assembled for competitive purposes.

Novelties have been provided for the evening entertainment, which has always been a popular feature of the Exposition.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 8—Intense interest is being focused by middlewestern football fans in the football championship contest for the state honors between Indiana university and the strong Notre Dame eleven at Washington park, Nov. 13. park Notre Dame defeated the Indiana university eleven by a 16 to 3 score. This year, however, the Cream and Crimson eleven is more powerful than ever before. They are planning a comeback against the Notre Dame gridsters.

Football fans will have an opportunity to see George Gipp, the sensational Notre Dame half back who has been mentioned as All-American material. Eastern football critics describe him as the most accomplished player of the year. Alumni from Indiana university and Notre Dame are planning to attend the game in large numbers.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister.

Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

SCHOOL TEACHER SAYS TANLAC HAS NO EQUAL

Nervousness and Indigestion Overcome and She Has Gained Twenty Pounds in Weight, States Miss Baker.

"There has been such a change in my health here lately that everybody in the neighborhood is talking about it," said Miss Nellie Baker, of 102 Liberty St., Freeport, Ill., in relating her experience with Tanlac the other day.

Miss Baker is a popular teacher in the schools at Ellnea, Ill., and among other benefits derived from Tanlac she reports a gain of twenty pounds in weight.

"I am so delighted with what Tanlac has done for me," she continued, "that it gives me the greatest pleasure to tell others suffering like I did how they may get relief. I was in a badly run-down condition for two years. My appetite left me and even the little I did manage to eat caused me to suffer terribly from indigestion.

"Sometimes my head ached day and night for days at a time. My nerves were so completely unstrung I couldn't stand the noise of people walking across the room, and often I shut myself up in my room, away from everybody, in order to keep away from noise. There was many a night when I didn't close my eyes in sleep.

"I fell off in weight until I was hardly more than a shadow of what I had been and got so weak I was barely able to drag myself about. I tried so many medicines with disappointing results that I became completely discouraged. But I got so interested in reading the wonderful statement appearing in the papers about Tanlac that I decided to give it a trial, and I now see it was the best thing I ever did.

"Since taking just a few bottles of this medicine I have a splendid appetite, and no matter what I eat I never feel a sign of indigestion. I have gained twenty pounds in weight, am entirely free from nervousness and sleep like a child at night without waking up once. The truth is I am just in the best of health and feel good all the time. My friends are all the time asking me what I have been taking to make me look so much better, and of course I tell them Tanlac. I expect to praise it as long as I live."

Tanlac is sold in Rushville by F. B. Johnson Co., in Milroy by Dallas Copper, in Manilla by Geo. J. Inlow, in Arlington by Mrs. L. T. Davis, in Carthage by Otto C. McGarty, and in New Salem by Mrs. Jos. Hankins, R. R. 2—Adv.

MILLIONS SAVED TO PRODUCERS THROUGH IMPROVED MARKETING

Marketing Representative Addressing Group of Farmers in Field.

Five and a half million dollars. That is the amount of savings and increased profits estimated to have been secured by producers through the assistance of the United States bureau of markets' field representatives in marketing, working in co-operation with state marketing agencies in 11 states during the year ended June 30, 1920. This figure is made up of hundreds of individual items of savings and additional profits estimated by growers, shippers and marketing agencies concerned and reported to the United States bureau of markets.

State co-operative work in marketing is carried on by the United States department of agriculture in 31 states, but information regarding the total savings effected in all of them is not yet available.

Improvement in methods of marketing and distributing farm products is the object of this marketing work. Investigations of grading, packing, loading, shipping and marketing are made and visual demonstrations given producers to familiarize them with the best marketing methods. Thus, some 200 demonstrations of approved practices of preparing farm products for market and over 700 talks relative to packing, grading, handling, storing and selling farm products and the formation of associations for co-operative activity were given. In one state alone two co-operative live-stock shipping associations with a membership of 3,030 shippers were formed, and an estimated saving of $73,548 secured through the co-operative shipping of 333 cars of cattle, hogs and sheep from 39 counties.

Aid Marketing Organizations. While complete figures are not available, those at hand show that the field men were instrumental in the formation of 183 marketing organizations, including 50 live-stock shipping associations and 57 fruit or vegetable associations. They also assisted in the organization of 12 credit unions and 19 federations of existing associations, most of which are statewide in scope. One hundred and sixty-six wool pools handling over 10,000,000 pounds of wool were given assistance in organization and grading. In a number of states the field men, through state agencies, secured the adoption of federal standards for farm products and containers. One hundred and thirty-eight groups of producers were assisted in making co-operative sales. One sale included 417 head of cattle, which sold for $2,508.97 above the prices quoted by local buyers on the day of sale. Instruction in the marketing of sweet potatoes was given producers and shippers in the Southern states. In one state plans and specifications for 39 sweet-potato storage houses were furnished and in another state 53 storage houses constructed from plans furnished by the United States bureau of markets. A sweet-potato exhibit car was arranged and moved 1,100 miles over four railroads touching 31 points in the sweet-potato producing sections. The exhibit included a miniature model storage house, working plans, and specifications for storage houses, pictures, charts, and slides showing approved methods of production, harvesting, storing, grading and packing.

Demonstrates Approved Methods.

Exhibits illustrating approved marketing practices were conducted in six states. In most instances these exhibits were in connection with state or district fairs or at expositions of more than state importance. Colorado's potato shipments run from 9,000 to 13,500 cars a year. Of this quantity, 40 per cent is moved during the winter months when there is great danger of frost damage in transit. To stimulate interest among Colorado potato growers and shippers in better marketing conditions, an exhibit of a full-sized freight car was produced in the Denver Auditorium at the Western potato show this year to show by actual demonstration proper methods of lining and loading cars of potatoes to prevent loss from freezing in transit, and of sewing sacks to prevent loss of potatoes slipping through the tops of sacks. Some 3,000 people attended the exhibit, and it is confidently believed that a greater number of cars will be loaded properly.

Twenty-five short instruction courses relative to various phases of marketing were given in six states. In one state a course of lectures covering 12 weeks was given in a school of commerce. Co-operative enterprises in three states were given assistance in accounting problems. The collection and dissemination of information relative to quantity, quality and price of local produce offered for sale was arranged for at 11 points in four states.

The United States bureau of markets' report of the work of its field agents in marketing shows that the accomplishments were greater in number and of more value to producers and consumers during the year ended June 30, 1920, than in any previous year. It is felt that work of this character should make possible the development of a consistent national policy in improving marketing methods.

GAS RATES INCREASED

The rates to be charged by the Central Fuel Gas company have been increased from 40 to 50 cents a thousand net, in an order received here today from the public service commission. A gross rate of 60 cents is collectable if bills are not paid off or before the tenth of each month. A minimum monthly charge of $1.00 was fixed, with ten percent added in case the bill is not paid on or before the tenth. A hearing was conducted here Nov. 1 and the new rates dates from that time.

Look Out for Rheumatism As Winter Approaches

So many cases of Rheumatism come from a tiny disease germ that infects the blood, that physicians are beginning to realize that this source of the disease is becoming quite prevalent. Of course a disease that has its source in the blood cannot be reached by local remedies applied to the surface. One remedy that has given splendid results in the treatment of Rheumatism is S.S.S., the fine old blood remedy that has been sold by druggists for more than fifty years. S.S.S. acts by driving out of the blood the disease germ that causes Rheumatism, thus affording real relief. Begin taking S.S.S. today and if you will write a complete history of your case, our medical director will give you expert advice, without charge. SALEM COMBATING A TYPHOID EPIDEMIC

Dr. McDowell and Nine Nurses Sent by Red Cross to Cooperate With The Health Authorities

198 CASES OF THE DISEASE

Salem, O., Nov. 8.—Dr. John R. McDowell, director of Health Service for Lake Division of the Red Cross, and nine nurses sent here by Lake Division headquarters at Cleveland are cooperating with Salem health authorities in combating a serious typhoid epidemic.

One of the first steps taken by Dr. McDowell on his arrival from Cleveland was to arrange for establishment of an emergency hospital to accommodate 50 typhoid patients.

There are 198 cases of typhoid but Dr. McDowell says "the situation is well in hand".

Red Cross supplies were sent here from Youngstown, O., as soon as the assistance of the organization was asked by local authorities.

Even before the Salem chapter had been appealed to by Salem health officials for aid in fighting the epidemic, Lake Division headquarters was ready to extend its service in combating the typhoid outbreak. Dr. McDowell came here the moment Lake Division's assistance was requested.

Coming on the eve of the Fourth Roll Call, Nov. 11 to 25, inclusive, during which 1,500,000 members will be sought in Lake Division, the ready response of the Red Cross in such emergencies as the one here exemplifies the need of united support of its great peace program.

DANCE CONTROVERSY RAGES IN PHILADELPHIA

Y. M. C. A. Announces it Will Include Dancing in Curriculum—
Presbytery Objects

YOUTH DEMANDS DANCING

Philadelphia, Nov. 8.—Terpsichoreans here were manifesting a great deal of interest over the controversy on dancing that is raging between the Y. M. C. A. and the Philadelphia Presbytery.

The Young Men's Christian Association has announced that it will include dancing in its varied curriculum, inasmuch "as demands have been received from large numbers of Christian peoples asking that we organize a dancing class".

The local Presbytery, however, who say they represent a large number of the Christian element, "felt called upon to object strenuously to a Christian organization conducting a class of dancing in its walls."

"The youth of today demands dancing", the Y. M. C. A. countered, "and it is far safer for young men and women to receive instruction in the art under the careful supervision of Christian instructors. The Y. M. C. A. feels that when this amusement is so conducted, it is free from evil and helpful rather than a harmful feature from a social standpoint".

JEWISH WORKERS FOR WESTERN FARM LAND

Jewish Leaders Urge Establishment of Big Farm Colonies by Jews in California

TO OVERCOME FOOD SHORTAGE

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 8.—Establishment of big farm colonies by Jews in California to overcome the national food shortage and to eventually supplant Japanese cheap labor there is being urged by prominent Jewish and educational leaders here.

Rabbi Dr. Joseph Krauskopf, in outlining his plan for colonization of Jews to till land on an extensive scale in the west, contrasted farm production in California and Pennsylvania, pointing to the fact that while forty bushels of corn per acre is realized on Pennsylvania soil, California yields twice as much or eighty bushels corn per acre.

It is proposed that all graduates of the National Farm School here, of which Dr. Krauskopf is president, be sent to untenanted places in California and other fertile acreages in the west, largely as an experiment. By working collectively and in large numbers, as proposed by the plan, the trained workers would speed up production as cheaply as if Japanese labor were employed and with better results, Dr. Krauskopf said.

FARMERS MEETING PLANS ARE PUBLIC

Officers of State Organization Work
To Make Convention Greatest Ever Held

WILL OPEN ON NOVEMBER 15

J. R. Howard, President of American Farm Bureau Federation,
To Be Main Speaker

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 8.—With the election of delegates to the second annual convention of the Indiana Federation of Farmers' Associations completed in practically every county of the state, officers of the organization have been working overtime in an effort to make the affair the most successful meeting of farmers ever held in Indiana. Advance information received at headquarters is to the effect that many of the county organizations expect to send large delegations to the convention in addition to the regular accredited voting delegates. All of the meetings will be held at the Masonic Temple auditorium, located at North and Illinois streets, the opening session being scheduled for 10 a. m. on the morning of Nov. 15.

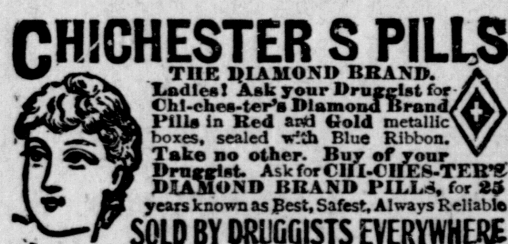

The credentials committee will meet at the Temple an hour earlier than the opening session to examine the certificates of election of the delegates and alternates and to issue badges. Following the convening of the convention proper, President John G. Brown will appoint a committee on resolutions and a nominating committee which will be followed by the President's address. The remainder of the business for the morning session will include the report of the committee on credentials, the roll call by districts and the reports of Lewis Taylor, general secretary, and E. E. Reynolds, state treasurer. The report of the latter will include a certified accountant's report of the financial condition of the state organization along with an itemized accounting for all money received and expended by that body.

The afternoon session is to open at 1:30 p. m. with an address by J. R. Howard, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, followed by a report of the special committee on constitution and by-laws. Adjournment of the afternoon session is to follow the report of George C. Bryant on the live stock survey of the state. At both morning and afternoon sessions President Brown will preside.

Everett McClure, first vice-president of the organization, is to preside at the evening session which is to be featured by an address on the part of Mrs. Chas. W. Sewell, of Benton County. Mrs. Sewell is widely known about the state for her activities in extension and home economics work and is a fluent speaker. H. C. Reid, state organizer will then make his report.

The second day of the convention, November 16, is to open at 9 a. m. with Maurice Douglas, second vice-president presiding. The first business is to be the reports of the grain, live stock and resolutions committees, in addition to a report of P. C. Ohler, live stock marketing agent of the Federation. Following a round table discussion on the aims and plans of the state organization a group meeting of the representatives of the even number districts is to be held for the purpose of electing district directors for the ensuing year.

President Brown will preside at the final meeting to be held in the afternoon which is to be opened by an address by G. I. Christie, of Purdue University. The address is to be followed by the report of the election of the new district directors and the report of the nominating committee for state officers. State officers to be elected include president and the two vice-presidents. In addition directors and delegates to the national convention of the American Farm Bureau Federation are to be elected. A call for a meeting of the new board of directors of the state Federation is to be issued which will be followed by adjournment.

PALMER'S POWER DOUBTED BY COURT

Judge Anderson Questions His Right
To Order Suppression of Facts
In Coal Case

HIS AIDS ARE QUIZZED TODAY

Dan Simms, L. E. Slack and Fred

BULLETIN

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 8.—The trial of 125 coal miners and operators on a charge of conspiracy to violate the Lever law by limiting production in an effort to boost prices was continued today to January 10 by Federal Judge A. B. Anderson.

The continuance was made on the motion of government prosecutors who claimed that alleged suppression of evidence by Attorney General Palmer had caused them to rearrange their plans at the last moment.

In granting the continuance Judge Anderson delivered an exhortation on Palmer. He accused Palmer of "coming strangely near of compounding a felony by his action in instructing government prosecutors to eliminate facts."

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 8.—Power of Attorney General Palmer in ordering the suppression of acts in the government's case against 125 coal miners and operators charged with conspiracy to limit production, is to be thoroughly probed by Federal Judge A. B. Anderson, before whom the case was called, it was announced today.

"I don't care what becomes of this case," said Anderson, when Charles Evans Hughes, counsel for the miner, took exception to Anderson's statement that the miners had flouted his strike injunction for thirty days.

"What I want to know is whether I am to be used as a mere puppet by the representatives from Washington," Anderson said.

"I want to know by what power a United States law officer acts when he can order pertinent facts suppressed in a government case?" Anderson quizzed Daniel Simms, Continued on Page Two

BARN AND CONTENTS ARE LOST IN BLAZE

Two Automobiles, Horse, Several
Tons of Hay and Implements
Destroyed in Fire

LIEU O'NEAL'S BARN BURNS

A large barn on the Lieu O'Neal farm, just west of Rushville on the Indianapolis pike, was destroyed by fire Saturday midnight, and for a time the residence was threatened. The loss is placed at $10,000 and is partially covered by insurance.

The origin of the fire is undetermined, and was first noticed by neighbors in that vicinity. The barn was a large frame structure, and one portion was used as a garage. Two automobiles, a horse, 4 or 5 tons of hay, farming implements, including a threshing separator, and new electric light plant which was only recently installed, were burned. A cow, which was also in the barn, succeeded in making its escape. A large hen house which was located west of the barn, in the orchard, also caught fire and was destroyed. The exact number of chickens lost is not known as Mrs. O'Neal had approximately 200, and many of these could not be found.

One of the automobiles destroyed belonged to Earl Winship, and the other one to Mr. O'Neal. Mr. Winship's loss is total, while Mr. O'Neal carried insurance on his machine.

The residence, which is located just north of the barn, was threatened and was badly scorched. The direction of the wind changed, and blew the flames westward, which caused the hen house to catch fire.

HARDING AT BROWNSVILLE

Crowds Line Streets to Get Glimpse
of President-Elect

(By United Press)

Brownsville, Texas, Nov. 8.—President-elect and Mrs. Harding and their party were taken to luncheon at the country club near here upon his arrival here today.

Crowds massed along the sidewalks to see the next executive of the United States. There were no prepared demonstrations, Harding having announced that he wanted to take no part in any formal affair. Midsummer weather prevailed here today. After the luncheon the presidential party left for Point Isabel in an automobile, the president-elect being scheduled to be at the R. B. Creagor cottage this afternoon.

NOVEMBER TERM JURIES ARE DRAWN

Special Venire Likely to be Selected
Later For Dunn Murder Trial
Opening Monday

VACATION WEEK IN COURT

With circuit court quiet this week being in vacation between the September and November terms, the clerk's office will be busy arranging for the opening of the new term, and in closing the books of the term which ended Saturday.

Following the usual custom, the jurors for the new term which begins next Monday, were chosen this morning by the jury commissioners. Both juries, the petit and grand, are always drawn on Monday before the new term opens. In all probability an extra number will be drawn toward the latter part of the week, to serve in case they are needed for the murder trial of the state against Fred Dunn.

The petit-jurors, as drawn this morning, consist of the following twelve men: William P. Henley, Ripley; Charles O. Kennedy, Ripley; M. O. Sefton, Noble; Henry Hungerford, Anderson; L. E. Hall, Washington; John Ricketts, Noble; Charles V. Carr, Walker; Thomas C. Gray, Ripley; Albert Branam, Rushville; John F. Boyd, Rushville; George R. Conway, Ripley and Seth Moor, Rushville.

The six names drawn for grand jury service are as follows: Cyrus Hilligoss, Orange; William M. Jackson, Washington; Pat Gilligan, Rushville; John L. Clark, Center; William H. Glendenning, Posey and Sabert Offutt, Posey.

WATSON TO SPEAK AT KENTLAND RALLY

Will Also Address Ratification Celebrations at Knightstown and Cambridge City

BOTH SCHEDULED TONIGHT

Senator James E. Watson will divide his time tonight between Knightstown and Cambridge City, where the republicans will ratify, and will go to Kentland Tuesday for a big celebration which will be held by the fellowtownsmen of Warren M. McCray for the governor-elect of Indiana.

Senator Watson was here for a few hours Sunday afternoon and regretted his inability to stay longer, but expects to be back in Rushville the latter part of this week.

Mrs. Watson was expected from Washington today and will accompany the senator tonight and tomorrow. He will speak at both Cambridge City and Knightstown tonight and has been invited to make the principal address at Kentland Tuesday afternoon. The Purdue university band will play at the Kentland celebration.

PLAN CAMPAIGN TO IMPROVE SCHOOLS

Attention Has Been Drawn to Issue
by Recent Survey Showing Indiana in 17th Place

WILL BE HELD THIS WEEK

Differences of Schools of State are
Largely Due to Fact That Not
Enough Money is Provided

The school authorities in Indiana are arranging for the campaign which is to be conducted November 7-16 with the view of improving the educational standards in this state. Attention has been drawn to this campaign by the recent survey which showed that Indiana schools had dropped to seventeenth place in the states of the union.

According to a recently completed survey of the schools of the state, Indiana does not maintain general and uniform system of schools equally open to all as provided by the constitution of the state. The schools of the cities are shown to be in most cases superior to those of the country both in length of school term and the equality of the teachers. This works a great injustice upon the children of the rural districts. It is one of the purposes of the educational campaign to awaken a realization of this and to start measures for the improvement of conditions.

The deficiencies of the schools of the state, the report shows, are largely due to the fact that not enough money is provided for school purposes. With more money longer school terms could be provided for the rural pupils. With more money better salaries could be paid rural teachers and they would not go to the city schools as soon as they have become experienced. More money would provide better equipment to rural schools. More money would build schools where they would be equally accessible to all.

The present system of raising the school funds in this state is said to be largely responsible for the inequality and inefficiency of the school system. During the school year of 1919-1920 only 14 per cent of the money expended on the schools came from state sources, leaving 86 per cent of the burden of supporting the school system upon local school corporations. It is pointed out that it is an impossible task to maintain a uniform system under this plan.

The distribution of wealth in Indiana is so unequal that some counties of the state are able to raise large school funds with a low rate of taxation while other counties are unable to raise sufficient funds with the maximum tax rate in effect. To illustrate: One county has taxable property to the amount of $697,533,240 while another has but $5,893,975; that is, where there is the amount of $119 of taxables in the former county, there is but $1 of taxables in the latter. Some corporations are able to maintain their schools with a local tuition tax of five cents on each $100 of taxables, while other townships are unable to maintain their school for the minimum term upon a tax of 75 cents, the legal maximum. This condition requires one citizen of Indiana to bear a tax burden fifteen times greater than that borne by another citizen for the education of his children.

It is explained that the proposed plan to equalize the tax burden would not increase the tax rate for school purposes in this county, but that Indianapolis and the larger cities of the state would feel the burden. He explained that the children in rural communities which are unable to maintain the best of schools are entitled to the same advantages that are afforded children in the cities and towns.

School authorities believe that if the state assists all schools for probably one-third or one-half of the total cost the money to be available only when certain standards are met, each community will be quick to take advantage of the assistance and as a result more uniform standards will be maintained throughout Indiana.

ROLL CALL SUNDAY IS OBSERVED HERE

Ministers Refer to Fourth Annual
Effort to Renew Memberships
In The Red Cross

CALL TO SERVICE ISSUED

Letter to Chairmen and Secretaries
of Auxiliaries of County Urges
Active Support

Special reference to the fourth annual Red Cross Roll Call was made by Rush county ministers, in their pulpits yesterday, all of them who referred to it urging the united support of the people for the organization which accomplished so much during the war and is equipped for service in peace times.

The Rev. L. E. Brown, president of the Rush county chapter, made the request of all Rushville ministers and auxiliary officials were urged to present the matter to the pastors in their community so that Roll Call Sunday would not pass unnoticed in Rush county.

The Roll Call officially opens on Thursday, Armistice Day, the second anniversary of the cessation of hostilities and closes on Thanksgiving Day. The Red Cross officials two milestones in American history as the opening and ending of the Roll Call because the Red Cross is so clearly a patriotic enterprise which calls for the support of all citizens.

The following letter has been addressed to the chairmen and secretaries of the county auxiliaries by Mrs. Marian Jones, secretary, urging their active co-operation in the Roll Call.

To the Chairmen and Secretaries of the Auxiliaries of the Rush County Chapter of the American Red Cross:

The American Red Cross annual Roll Call will be conducted this year from November 11, Armistice Day, to November 25, Thanksgiving Day.

The peace program of the Red Cross is varied and important, and you are requested and urged to make special effort to secure the renewal of the membership of every person whose name appears on the roster of your auxiliary.

The importance of continuing the humanitarian work of the Red Cross is apparent in the aftermath of war. To relieve the distress of men who are suffering from injuries received or were broken in health while serving their country when the world was on fire, and to aid their families, is the mission of the Red Cross.

On account of conditions over which the organization has no control and because of a lack of available nurses, the Rush county chapter has not been able to carry out the program of activities in the local field. But much has been accomplished through the Home Service branch of the organization in aiding returned soldiers and their families, and in furnishing supplies for destitute people, especially children, in the war-wrecked and devastated countries of Europe, where the call for further service is strong and insistent.

In order to carry out the big program prepared by the organization, a general renewal of memberships is necessary. Make your plans to give some time to this roll call, and give it as wide publicity as possible.

It is not the intention to conduct as intensive a campaign this year as was carried on during the war, but every member should be given an opportunity to renew his allegiance, and contribute his dollar to this humanitarian cause. The Red Cross deserves a hearty response to this invitation to annual membership.

Mrs. Marian Jones, secretary; Miss Nora Sleeth and Miss Anna Bohannon, members of the executive committee of the Rush county chapter, have been appointed a special committee with headquarters in the recorders office in the court house to direct the Roll Call. Information concerning the drive can be obtained from this committee.

FORTNER IS RECOVERING

Stillwater, Okla., Man Who Stepped
Off Moving Car Improving

Lovell Fortner of Stillwater, Okla., who stepped off a moving I. & C. traction car near the first stop east of Glenwood last Thursday evening, was reported today to be slowly recovering at the Memorial hospital in Connersville where he was taken following the accident.

Mrs. Lizzie Stevens of Orange and Mrs. Ozro Stevens, living near Orange, sisters of Mr. Fortner, were at his bedside Sunday, and stated today that physicians saw no reason why he should not get well.

Mr. Fortner sustained a broken bone in his neck. He formerly resided in the Orange neighborhood and was on his way for a visit with his sisters when the accident happened.

LIFT CHURCH DEBT DEDICATION SUNDAY

Members of Glenwood M. E. Congregation Pledge $8,500, Leaving
Balance of $1,500 Over Cost

BISHOP L. D. LEETE SPEAKS

Fifteen hundred dollars more than enough to pay off the church debt was raised at the formal dedication of the new house of worship just completed by the Methodist Episcopal congregation of Glenwood, Sunday. Immense crowds attended all three of the services and six hundred persons were served at noon in the basement by the Ladies Aid society. The society also served supper.

Bishop L. D. Leete of the new Indiana area, recently created, preached at the morning service and in the afternoon Dr. J. M. Walker of this city, district superintendent, delivered the sermon. In the evening Dr. Walker preached at the dedicatory ceremony.

The church was erected at a cost of $31,000, construction having been started last April, and $24,000 had been subscribed to pay for it before the dedication. Yesterday $8,500 was pledged, which leaves a balance of $1,500. The Christian and United Presbyterian congregations of Glenwood helped in a definite way toward reaching the goal.

The church is a brick veneer building of twelve rooms, equipped to take care of the Sunday school and athletic needs of the young people of the congregation. It is heated with steam and lighted with electricity. The Rev. F. T. Taylor is beginning his second year as pastor.

MRS. SARAH A. CARR DIED THIS MORNING

Senility Causes Death of Woman 84
Years Old Who is Well Known
in This City

FUNERAL SERVICES TUESDAY

Mrs. Sarah A. Carr, age 84 years, died this morning about eight o'clock at her home just west of Rushville on the Arlington road, after being ill for several weeks, with a complication of diseases related to senility.

Mrs. Carr was well known in Rushville on the Arlington road, after residing here or 25 years. She was born and reared in Illinois and spent a great portion of her life in Iowa, later moving to a farm, which is at the western edge of Rushville. The deceased is survived by four sons, Charles, who made his home with his mother; Owen L. Carr of this city; Perry Carr of Cincinnati, and Ira Carr of Miami, Fla. All four of the sons were at her bedside when she died.

The funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock at the late residence, and burial will be made in the cemetery at Arlington.

CLOSE BUSINESS OF FISCAL YEAR

Officers and Directors of Rush Co.
Farmers' Association in
Session Here

DISCUSS STATE MEETING

Special Car on I. & C. Will be Obtained if Fifty Passengers Are Guaranteed

The officers and board of directors of the Rush County Farmers' association met Saturday afternoon to complete the business of the fiscal year, so that complete reports of the year's business can be made at the annual meeting which will be held December 13.

Besides the usual routine business, the matter of the annual state convention at Indianapolis next week was discussed. There seems to be a great deal of interest in the state meeting and it is expected that a large delegation of members from this county will attend. The officers of the local association have expressed the hope that every farmer who can possibly do so, attend the meeting.

The local cream buying situation was discussed at length and the matter referred to a special committee for disposal.

The Rush County Farmers association is considering the matter of arranging for a special I. & C. car for the accommodation of the delegation of farmers who will attend the state convention at Indianapolis next Monday.

A special car can be obtained if the association will guarantee fifty passengers, which number the officers of the association feel confident they will be able to guarantee. The fare for the trip, if a special car is obtained, will be much below the regular fare.

It is desired that Rush county send as large a delegation to the meeting as possible and the officials request all members who expect to make the trip to call the county agent's office and reserve a ticket for the special car, not later than Friday noon.

CORN SHOW SET FOR FIRST WEEK IN 1921

Committee Prepares Premium List
and Also Offers Cash Prizes
For Women's Exhibit

SHOW WILL LAST TWO DAYS

The first steps towards the big Rush County Corn Show were taken when the executive committee met here Saturday afternoon. The first week in January was determined upon as the best time for the show and it was decided that the exhibit would be held two days.

In making up the premium list and figuring the distribution of the county prize money, the committee succeeded in making up a very attractive prize list for the corn show and found they still had money left. This extra money the committee decided, would be used for cash prizes for a women's exhibit, to be held in connection with the corn exhibit.

A poultry show for the women was discussed, but it was feared that a place to have such an exhibit could not be found. In view of this difficulty, the committee favored an exhibit of bread, cakes and butter, which they thought would be a source of great interest among the ladies of the county.

A committee composed of Will Brown, John W. Manzy and Donald D. Alexander were appointed to work out the details for the corn exhibit. Mrs. Bert Davison was appointed to head the committee of ladies who will have charge of the women's department, the other members of the committee to be named by Mrs. Davison.

PRODUCTION OF CATTLE IN WEST

Investigations Conducted in Nebraska Show Wide Variation in Figures.

According to cost of production investigations conducted by the United States department of agriculture in co-operation with the University of Nebraska in parts of Nebraska during the past two years, the average cost of corn-fed cattle laid down at market was $14.91 per hundredweight for 2,293 head fed in the winter of 1919-20, $13.88 for 3,941 cattle in a survey study during the winter of 1919-20, and an average of $13.89 for an additional 795 cattle upon which detailed cost figures were secured during the same winter. The costs upon some droves were found to vary widely from these average figures, with the major portion going to market the first winter (1919-19) carrying an expense bill of from $13 to $18 a hundredweight, while in 1919-20 the costs of most of the cattle were between $11 and $17. The facts thus far brought out by the investigation would indicate that during the past two years, in the district covered by the survey, cattle feeding was a precarious venture, more likely to be unprofitable than not. There was an average loss per head of $3.17 on the cattle for which records were obtained in 1919-19, and of $10.69 and $14.57 on two groups for which records were obtained in 1919-20.

These figures are the results of the first two years' work of a five-year study of the basic factors of the cost of fattening cattle, which is being conducted in Nebraska by the office of farm management and farm economics, in co-operation with the University of Nebraska and the bureau of animal industry, United States department of agriculture. Similar studies are being conducted in Iowa, Missouri, Illinois and Indiana, and preliminary reports on the work in these states will be forthcoming shortly.

Feeding Plays Minor Part.

The greater part of the Nebraska cattle covered in the survey work of 1918-19 made their gains at a cost of from 20 to 35 cents per pound, with extremes ranging from 12 to 48 cents, while of the cattle covered the next year the greater part made their gains at from 15 to 35 cents per pound, with an extreme range of from 8 to 53 cents. While economical feeding is shown to be the major factor in the cost of fattening after the steer is bought, the investigation substantiates the fact that feeding usually plays a minor part in determining profit or loss, and that buying right and selling right are more often the controlling factors.

The cattle in question were bought at about the same figures in both years of the investigation. In 1918-19 three of the droves were bought at between $6 and $7, but most of the cattle covered in the study went into the lot at between $8 and $12. Of the 21 droves covered by the detailed cost-accounting method, 11 cost between $10 and $11. The weight of the feeders varied rather widely, averaging about 750 pounds with but few over 1,000 pounds or under 500.

Feed, the most important factor of the cost of fattening the steer after purchase, was found to constitute from 75 to 90 per cent of all the expense involved in handling the steers after being put on feed.

Wide Variation in Cost Factors.

The wide variation in the factors affecting cost was reflected in equally wide variation in the total cost of the finished cattle. During both of the years of the study the cost of the cattle covered in the surveys ranged from about $8 to $22 per hundred fattened; the average for 1918-19 being $14.91, and for 1919-20, $13.89. The droves covered by the cost-accounting method showed a much narrower range, from $10 to $18 with an average of $13.89. The financial return varied widely, ranging from $50 profit or more per head, reported for 40 head in 1918-19, to $50 or more per head loss, reported for 155 head in 1918-19 and for over 200 head in 1919-20. As has been stated above, on the average there was a loss incurred in handling cattle each year, reaching $14.57 per head as the average loss of the 795 cattle on the detailed investigation in 1919-20. However, a number of farmers carried their cattle through with profit.

PALMER

They testified that Palmer had ordered them to eliminate facts in the miners' trial occurring between April 1, 1919 and November 1, 1919 about which latter time the strike injunction against the coal miners was issued.

Palmer, according to C. B. Ames, former assistant attorney general, who represented Palmer here today, said that the attorney general considers the facts leading up to the issue in the injunction proceedings as a dead matter because of the miner's surrender.

Regarding the conference here between Anderson, Palmer and the latter's aid, Anderson said:

"Mr. Palmer considers that the miners have surrendered. I don't aim to state that they did not surrender but that I differ with him regarding who had made the surrender."

"I will not send bootleggers to jail and allow other men who are found guilty, go free," said Anderson. "There is not a bit of truth in Palmer's statement that an understanding was reached when Palmer was here. The attorney general does not want to send these miners to jail," said Anderson.

Anderson planned to quiz Ames when the court reconvened this afternoon.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. For 17 years he used these tablets (a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil) in his private practice with great success.

"They do all the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. No pains, no griping, no injury to the gums or danger from acid foods—yet they stimulate the liver and bowels. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel 'loggy' and 'heavy.' Note how they clear clouded brain and perk up the spirits."

When a Woman is Nervous—Worried

The lives of most women are full of worry. Men's troubles are bad enough, but women's are worse. Worry makes women sick. It pulls them down, and in their weakened condition they are subject to pains, aches, weakness, back-aches, headaches and dizzy spells. Most women neglect their health, and for this they pay the penalty. Any woman will find that neglect does not pay. A little more attention to health would brighten up her life. If she asks her neighbors she finds that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription benefits a woman's whole system. It not only acts upon the troubles and weaknesses peculiar to women, but is an all-around tonic that braces the entire body, overcoming nervousness, sleeplessness, headaches, dizziness and a run-down condition.

MOUNT VERNON, ILL.—"I am glad to say that Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription proved just as good as it is advertised to be. I was weak and lacked strength and ambition. I had worked hard and was poorly. I used the 'Favorite Prescription' and it gave me new strength, and seemed to put new life in me. I was pleased that it did so much for me and I am very glad to recommend it."—MRS. WILL NEWBY, No. 1213 West Broadway.

NEW PRINCESS

TONIGHT AND TUESDAY

Tiger love—and the winner take all! No, merely a "small time" vaudeville act, and a tired girl yearning for the country.

Merely another "Apache" dance—a false step—another nurse's chart in a big hospital.

At last, the country—to save her life. A home! Friends! The wide, fresh fields.

A glow, unpainted, stealing into her face! Then love! One night, a note—with her heart breaking: "David dear! I must go back. Good-bye!"—Why.

ESSE L. LASKY PRESENTS

Ethel Clayton

A Paramount Picture in "A CITY SPARROW"

AMUSEMENTS

"A City Sparrow"—Princess

Kate Jordan's famous story, "A City Sparrow", forms the basis for Ethel Clayton's new Paramount picture, of the same name, which will be shown at the Princess Theatre Monday and Tuesday.

The picture presents Miss Clayton in the role of Milly West, a dancer in vaudeville and burlesque houses. After an accident which results in a declaration by her physician that she can never become a mother, she meets David Muir, a staunch countryman who persuades her to take a rest in the country.

A love romance soon develops and she consents to become the wife of Muir, but afterwards is awakened to his ardent love for children. Realizing that she can never make him happy as a wife, she starts for the city, but Muir finds her waiting for the train. She confides to him the reason for her conduct. He tells her he wants only her, and takes her in his arms.

The story contrasts the smoky city with the refreshing beauty and fragrance of the great outdoors. Walter Hiers has an excellent comedy role. Clyde Fillmore is leading man and William Boyd, Rose Cade, Robert Brower, Lillian Leighton, Bartine Burkett, an Sylvia Ashton are represented in the cast.

Drama of Russia at Mystic.

The star chamber sessions of the Russian soviet are relentlessly unveiled in "The Right to Happiness", the Universal photodrama of modern Russia which comes to the Mystic Theatre today.

The spectator sees the "comrades" and cohorts of the two principal Russian agitators in the chamber of deputies in Petrograd. Silk hatted envoys arrive from Berlin. They leave an issue of gold with the money-lusters and, replete, confident of the support of the Russian radicals.

A girl skips lightly into the room, leaps to the marble rostrum and inflames the smouldering brains of the "comrades" by her creed of violence. Then she leaves Petrograd for New York as an envoy of destruction from leaders of the radicals.

How she finds her sister living in splendor in New York and how the whole fury of her heart is directed against her own father, who is known to her only as a stone-hearted money king, forms the theme of the unusual film drama.

Printzess Suits and Coats

Again we recommend the Printzess garments as the first character and quality to be found anywhere.

Your investigation will prove to you as it has to others that they represent the very last word in the finished garment art. It has always been our custom to sell the garments at a moderate price. Just now an investigation will prove their economy and the positive folly of risking the inferior.

Red Cross is Service

The Fourth annual Red Cross Roll Call is not a drive. It is a campaign.

It is not an effort to raise any specific sum.

The $1.00 dues of 10,000,000 people for 1921 are payable and this Roll Call is merely the organized activity of collection.

The American Red Cross, by its Congressional Charter, is officially designated for the following purposes:

"To furnish volunteer aid to the sick and wounded in time of war, in accordance with the treaty of Geneva.

"To act in matters of volunteer relief and as a medium of communication between the American people and their Army and Navy.

"To continue and carry on a system of national and international relief in time of peace and to apply the same in mitigating the sufferings by pestilence, famine, fire, floods and other great national calamities and to devise and carry on measures for preventing the same."

Answer the Red Cross Roll Call November 11, Armistice Day, to November 25, Thanksgiving Day.

Think in Time

A word of caution even to the wisest is not amiss at times.

The season is approaching when all people will be making their Christmas purchases.

The fact that money has been plentiful for the past few years has not removed the element of caution from our home people, and neither has it blunted their desire for economy.

Caution dictates that we buy from a house that is known for its honest quality of its goods.

Economy requires that quality be proportionate to price.

The home dealer is known to you. He can not afford to sell you a shoddy or inferior article because it would come back to him. He can not afford to gouge you because it would put him out of business.

Both his honor and his business safety compel him to give you a square deal.

Think this over before the rush is on.

People who think twice before they buy once seldom make a mistake.

The farmer is raising Old Ned because the price of wheat is down, and the consumer is raising the devil because the price of flour is still up. Perhaps you can figure it out—but we pass.

We are solemnly assured by noted economists that Germany is becoming prosperous, and also that she is on the road to ruin. Well, between the two she ought to get somewhere.

The man who takes an interest in the welfare of his community soon finds that other people take an equal interest in him.

Want to know what your neighbor thinks of you? Just sit down and analyze your own conduct for the past year. That will tell the story.

"How do we understand the phases of the moon?" inquires an exchange. Some may, but we don't.

Benevolence is always skin deep. Sometimes it reaches as far as the pocketbook.

HELLO, HAPPY HUSBANDS

Are husbands always happy? Husbands enjoy all the comforts of a good home and incidentally learn to take as well as give in little family quarrels. Bachelors miss the scrapping privileges accorded bachelors. But, they both enjoy the wise and witty quips about hubby, shown in the popular film subject, "Topics of the Day."

How true to life these wordings are, you may judge from the following "Topic" selections:

"Say, Joe, you ought to buck up and show your wife who is running things at your house." Henpeck, (sadly) "It isn't necessary. She knows."

LONDON ANSWERS

Husband—Didn't I telegraph you not to bring your mother with you?"

Wife—"That's what she wants to see you about."

SASKATOON TELEGRAM

"Cheer up, old man; Why don't you drown your sorrow?"

"She's bigger than I am, and besides, it would be murder!"

LONDON (ENG). TIT-BITS

She (during the quarrel—"You never deserved a wife like me."

He—"And I never deserved the rheumatism; but I got it just the same."

TORONTO (CANADA) WORLD

Officer—"Why are you rushing along with that bundle?"

"It's my wife's hat and I'm afraid the style will change."

WOMEN'S WEAR N. Y.

"So you are going to send your wife away to the country for a rest?"

"Yes, I need it badly."

THE CROW'S NEST.

"You haven't much on the menu. Still it doesn't matter—my wife is easily satisfied."

Waiter: "If she's your wife she must be."

PERSHING ENDORSES RED CROSS ROLL CALL

It gives me real pleasure to pledge my hearty support to the Fourth Roll Call of the American Red Cross. While the opportunity for its greatest service comes during times of war, and its achievements during the late World War have been unparalleled, yet there is and perhaps there always will be a vital need for the humanitarian work which it renders. The present and former service men can never forget the Red Cross, not only for what it did for them during the war, but for what it is doing now in the Army Camps and Posts and whenever it is needed in assisting the ex-service men throughout the country. The value of the American Red Cross as a peace time organization can hardly be overestimated and we owe it our loyal support and active cooperation.

JOHN J. PERSHING, General.

RED CROSS NEWS

Wherever disaster strikes, the Red Cross responds with aid and succor to suffering humanity.

Last year in the U. S. the Red Cross aided more than 30,000 victims of flood, fire, tornado or other disasters.

Do your part in this great cause by renewing your membership for another.

More than 26,000 men are still in hospitals as the result of the war. Your membership helps the Red Cross make their lives happier.

Last year in the United States the Red Cross aided more than 30,000 victims of flood, fire, tornado and other unavoidable disaster.

1,000,000 persons have learned the right way—the Red Cross way—of giving First Aid in time of accident.

92,000 women and girls last year under Red Cross nurses, completed courses of instruction in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick.

The American Red Cross in one month in 1920 helped 525,643 of the stricken people of Europe—423,868 adults and 101,755 children.

Last Night's Dreams — What They Mean

DID YOU DREAM ABOUT ADAM AND EVE?

AMONG the modern scientific dream investigators one school, led by Freud, regards all dreams as having for their primal source a wish, which wish may be lying dormant, as it were, in the "psychic" of the dreamer without his being conscious in his waking hours that he possesses it. Another school of which Havelock Ellis may be taken as a representative, regards only a portion of our dreams as "wish dreams" while a third rejects the wish theory altogether.

The Freudian school would explain a dream of Adam and Eve as the coming to life in our dream consciousness of a longing for a return to the state of innocence and bliss of our first parents, for paradise, as an attempt of the dream ego to "come to the guarded gate and softly smuggle through where the wreath of Eve lies red on the turf as she left it long ago." Ellis would accept this explanation with doubt while others would declare that the dream was only a more or less distorted recollection of something which we had seen, heard or read during the day.

The mystics, however, rejecting the theories of the scientists, boldly proclaim the prophetic symbolism of the dream. To them to dream of Adam and Eve means many good things coming to you, including a birth in the family. Adam seems to play the principal part in this dream. Watch his face. If he has a good-natured look success is yours in love and business. To the farmer it means abundant crops and high prices. It would appear as if most farmers had had this dream of late. If you have a lawsuit on hand you will win. If Adam looks displeased be very cautious in your affairs, for others are seeking to do you mischief, though by being careful you will get the better of them. Don't take a sea voyage for a month or two.

Singularly enough, perhaps from an association of the birthplace of the human race with our own, this dream is an omen that success is coming to you in your native town and you should not leave it for other scenes of activity. If you are away from your native town return there; for there lies your fortune.

It is a good dream anyway whether a dream-fulfilled longing for paradise, or an omen of home and prosperity. (Copyright.)

Voice of the forest, tongue by which it speaks
The throbbing gladness of its vernal time,
No more, no more, your rising pinion seeks

Now do men bid you sing a song as sweet
To prison bars.

And then desired, like book and pipe and bowl—
Knowing not caring when they cage a bird
They cage a soul.

TWO CONFERENCES INTEREST MEMBERS

Annual Meeting of Christian Churches of County Will be Held at Little Flatrock

AN INDIANAPOLIS SESSION

Two conferences of importance to members of the Christian churches of this county will be held this week and next week.

Of ranking interest is the annual county conference which will take place at the Little Flatrock church Wednesday, November 17, beginning at 9:45 a. m. It has been the custom to hold the conference in Rushville, but it was given to the Little Flatrock congregation.

Among the important addresses to be made at the county conference will be one by Rev. W. W. Sniff of Union City, Ind., former pastor of the Main Street church of this city. Several state workers will be present and speak.

There will be a joint conference of the eastern, western and central districts of the Indiana Christian Missionary Association held at the Central Christian church in Indianapolis Wednesday. The meeting will be started promptly at 10 a. m. All pastors, officers and members of the churches in this county are urged to attend this important meeting.

SUIT ON ACCOUNT

A suit on an account was filed this morning in Squire Stech's court by Mrs. Catherine Black, administrator, against John Cregar. The bill is for payment on some groceries purchased at the store, of which the late B. A. Black was owner. The amount is for $58.77, and represents a portion of the total, which has been paid on the original bill.

Grateful Father Tells What It Did
W. E. Curry, 139 1/2 St. Evansville, Ind., writes: "I have a little girl 8 years, who has a good deal of trouble with croup. I have used Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, giving it to her according to directions, and obtaining instant relief for her. My wife and I use it whenever bothered with a bad cold or cough, and I will say that it is the best remedy for a bad cold, cough, throat trouble or croup that I ever saw."

Parents who use Foley's Honey and Tar know it is safe and no harm will come even if an overdose should be given by accident. It tastes good and children like it. It won't upset the delicate stomachs of young children, delicate persons or elderly people.

THE GIANTESS

ONCE there lived a Giant who had a daughter and, of course, she was a Giantess.

The Giant, like all others of his kind, carried off all the people that came in his path, but his daughter always managed, while her father was asleep, to rescue all the men, as she wished very much to get married.

She thought she might win a husband if she could keep him locked up long enough on bread and water, for she knew that men would promise anything when they wanted a good dinner.

But all the men she locked up had said they would starve before they would have for a wife the big daughter of a Giant.

Now the Giantess was a very vain person, and while she might have out any food for a whole day, and the next morning, when she was sure it was very hungry, she carried it with her own hands a very nice breakfast.

The Prince was wise, even if he had been reared in luxury, and he saw at once that the Giantess was very vain creature.

So he praised the food and told her he was sure she had cooked it, for no one but a beautiful woman could cook such dainty food.

Then he told her he had never seen such beautiful hair, and he wished he could see it at its full length, for he was sure that no lady of his father's court had hair that could compare with hers.

This pleased the Giantess so much that she at once let down her wonderful hair, and the Prince exclaimed that nothing would make him happy but to have a thick lock of her tresses.

The Giantess was sure she had lost a husband, and she glad cut from her head a heavy, long piece of her golden hair.

That night, when the Giantess and the Giant slept, the Prince fastened the hair to the window of the tower and let himself down to the ground and escaped to his home.

When the Giantess came in the morning and found the Prince gone she was, of course, very angry, but when she saw her hair, which had pretended to admire, had made ropes for him to escape, her anger knew no bounds.

She raved and tore her beautiful hair until her father, thinking she had lost her senses, ran down the mountain so fast that he forgot the ocean at the bottom, and plunged and was lost.

The Giantess kept on tearing her hair until none was left, and when it was all gone from her head she began to shrivel up, and at last became so small that the wind blew her away.

But on the edge of the mountain overhanging the Ocean, can be seen the face in the rock like that of a giant with streaming hair, and on stormy nights the sailors always keep from that rock, for they can hear what sounds like the cries of the Giantess still bemoaning the Prince.

SCHOOL TEACHER SAYS TANLAC HAS NO EQUAL

Nervousness and Indigestion Overcome and She Has Gained Twenty Pounds in Weight, States Miss Baker.

"There has been such a change in my health here lately that everybody in the neighborhood is talking about it," said Miss Nellie Baker, of 102 Liberty St., Freeport, Ill., in relating her experience with Tanlac the other day.

Miss Baker is a popular teacher in the schools at Ellena, Ill., and among other benefits derived from Tanlac she reports a gain of twenty pounds in weight.

"I am so delighted with what Tanlac has done for me," she continued, "that it gives me the greatest pleasure to tell others suffering like I did how they may get relief. I was in a badly run-down condition for two years. My appetite left me and even the little I did manage to eat caused me to suffer terribly from indigestion.

"Sometimes my head ached day and night for days at a time. My nerves were so completely unstrung I couldn't stand the noise of people walking across the room, and often I shut myself up in my room, away from everybody, in order to keep away from noise. There was many a night when I didn't close my eyes in sleep.

"I fell off in weight until I was hardly more than a shadow of what I had been and got so weak I was barely able to drag myself about. I tried so many medicines with disappointing results that I became completely discouraged. But I got so interested in reading the wonderful statement appearing in the papers about Tanlac that I decided to give it a trial, and I now see it was the best thing I ever did.

"Since taking just a few bottles of this medicine I have a splendid appetite, and no matter what I eat I never feel a sign of indigestion. I have gained twenty pounds in weight, am entirely free from nervousness and sleep like a child at night without waking up once. The truth is I am just in the best of health and feel good all the time. My friends are all the time asking me what I have been taking to make me look so much better, and of course I tell them Tanlac. I expect to praise it as long as I live."

Tanlac is sold in Rushville by F. B. Johnson Co., in Milroy by Dallas Copper, in Manilla by Geo. J. Inlow, in Arlington by Mrs. L. T. Davis, in Carthage by Otto C. McGarty, and in New Salem by Mrs. Jos. Hankins. R. R. 2—Adv.

MILLIONS SAVED TO PRODUCERS THROUGH IMPROVED MARKETING

Marketing Representative Addressing Group of Farmers in Field.

Five and a half million dollars. That is the amount of savings and increased profits estimated to have been secured by producers through the assistance of the United States bureau of markets' field representatives in marketing, working in co-operation with state marketing agencies in 11 states during the year ended June 30, 1920. This figure is made up of hundreds of individual items of savings and additional profits estimated by growers, shippers and marketing agencies concerned and reported to the United States bureau of markets.

State co-operative work in marketing is carried on by the United States department of agriculture in 31 states, but information regarding the total savings effected in all of them is not yet available.

Improvement in methods of marketing and distributing farm products is the object of this marketing work. Investigations of grading, packing, loading, shipping and marketing are made and visual demonstrations given producers to familiarize them with the best marketing methods. Thus, some 200 demonstrations of approved practices of preparing farm products for market and over 700 talks relative to packing, grading, handling, storing and selling farm products and the formation of associations for co-operative activity were given. In one state alone two co-operative live-stock shipping associations with a membership of 3,030 shippers were formed, and an estimated saving of $73,548 secured through the co-operative shipping of 333 cars of cattle, hogs and sheep from 39 counties.

Aid Marketing Organizations.

While complete figures are not available, those at hand show that the field men were instrumental in the formation of 183 marketing organizations, including 50 live-stock shipping associations and 57 fruit or vegetable associations. They also assisted in the organization of 12 credit unions and 19 federations of existing associations, most of which are statewide in scope. One hundred and sixty-six wool pools handling over 10,000,000 pounds of wool were given assistance in organization and grading. In a number of states the field men, through state agencies, secured the adoption of federal standards for farm products and containers. One hundred and thirty-eight groups of producers were assisted in making co-operative sales. One sale included 417 head of cattle, which sold for $2,508.97 above the prices quoted by local buyers on the day of sale.

Instruction in the marketing of sweet potatoes was given producers and shippers in the Southern states. In one state plans and specifications for 39 sweet-potato storage houses were furnished and in another state 53 storage houses constructed from plans furnished by the United States bureau of markets. A sweet-potato exhibit car was arranged and moved 1,100 miles over four railroads touching 31 points in the sweet-potato producing sections. The exhibit included a miniature model storage house, working plans, and specifications for storage houses, pictures, charts, and slides showing approved methods of production, harvesting, storing, grading and packing.

Demonstrates Approved Methods.

Exhibits illustrating approved marketing practices were conducted in six states. In most instances these exhibits were in connection with state or district fairs or at expositions of more than state importance. Colorado's potato shipments run from 9,000 to 13,500 cars a year. Of this quantity, 40 per cent is moved during the winter months when there is great danger of frost damage in transit. To stimulate interest among Colorado potato growers and shippers in better marketing conditions, an exhibit of a full-sized freight car was produced in the Denver Auditorium at the Western potato show this year to show by actual demonstration proper methods of lining and loading cars of potatoes to prevent loss from freezing in transit, and of sewing sacks to prevent loss of potatoes slipping through the tops of sacks. Some 3,000 people attended the exhibit, and it is confidently believed that a greater number of cars will be loaded properly.

Twenty-five short instruction courses relative to various phases of marketing were given in six states. In one state a course of lectures covering 12 weeks was given in a school of commerce. Co-operative enterprises in three states were given assistance in accounting problems. The collection and dissemination of information relative to quantity, quality and price of local produce offered for sale was arranged for at 11 points in four states.

The United States bureau of markets' report of the work of its field agents in marketing shows that the accomplishments were greater in number and of more value to producers and consumers during the year ended June 30, 1920, than in any previous year. It is felt that work of this character should make possible the development of a consistent national policy in improving marketing methods.

Look Out for Rheumatism As Winter Approaches

So many cases of Rheumatism come from a tiny disease germ that infects the blood, that physicians are beginning to realize that this source of the disease is becoming quite prevalent. Of course a disease that has its source in the blood cannot be reached by local remedies applied to the surface.

One remedy that has given splendid results in the treatment of Rheumatism is S.S.S., the fine old blood remedy that has been sold by druggists for more than fifty years. S.S.S. acts by driving out of the blood the disease germ that causes Rheumatism, thus affording real relief.

Begin taking S.S.S. today and if you will write a complete history of your case, our medical director will give you expert advice, without charge. Address Chief Medical Adviser, 151 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

SALEM COMBATING A TYPHOID EPIDEMIC

Dr. McDowell and Nine Nurses Sent by Red Cross to Cooperate With The Health Authorities

198 CASES OF THE DISEASE

Salem, O., Nov. 8.—Dr. John R. McDowell, director of Health Service for Lake Division of the Red Cross, and nine nurses sent here by Lake Division headquarters, at Cleveland are cooperating with Salem health authorities in combating a serious typhoid epidemic.

One of the first steps taken by Dr. McDowell on his arrival from Cleveland was to arrange for establishment of an emergency hospital to accommodate 50 typhoid patients. There are 198 cases of typhoid but Dr. McDowell says "the situation is well in hand".

Red Cross supplies were sent here from Youngstown, O., as soon as the assistance of the organization was asked by local authorities.

Even before the Salem chapter had been appealed to by Salem health officials for aid in fighting the epidemic, Lake Division headquarters was ready to extend its service in combating the typhoid outbreak. Dr. McDowell came here the moment Lake Division's assistance was requested.

Coming on the eve of the Fourth Roll Call, Nov. 11 to 25, inclusive, during which 1,500,000 members will be sought in Lake Division, the ready response of the Red Cross in such emergencies as the one here exemplifies the need of united support of its great peace program.

DANCE CONTROVERSY RAGES IN PHILADELPHIA

Y. M. C. A. Announces it Will Include Dancing in Curriculum—Presbytery Objects

YOUTH DEMANDS DANCING

Philadelphia, Nov. 8.—Terpsichoreans here were manifesting a great deal of interest over the controversy on dancing that is raging between the Y. M. C. A. and the Philadelphia Presbytery.

The Young Men's Christian Association has announced that it will include dancing in its varied curriculum, inasmuch "as demands have been received from large numbers of Christian peoples asking that we organize a dancing class".

The local Presbytery, however, who say they represent a large number of the Christian element, "felt called upon to object strenuously to a Christian organization conducting a class of dancing in its walls."

"The youth of today demands dancing", the Y. M. C. A. countered, "and it is far safer for young men and women to receive instruction in the art under the careful supervision of Christian instructors. The Y. M. C. A. feels that when this amusement is so conducted, it is free from evil and helpful rather than a harmful feature from a social standpoint".

JEWISH WORKERS FOR WESTERN FARM LAND

Jewish Leaders Urge Establishment of Big Farm Colonies by Jews in California

TO OVERCOME FOOD SHORTAGE

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 8.—Establishment of big farm colonies by Jews in California to overcome the national food shortage and to eventually supplant Japanese cheap labor there is being urged by prominent Jewish and educational leaders here.

Rabbi Dr. Joseph Krauskopf, in outlining his plan for colonization of Jews to till land on an extensive scale in the west, contrasted farm production in California and Pennsylvania, pointing to the fact that while forty bushels of corn per acre is realized on Pennsylvania soil, California yields twice as much or eighty bushels corn per acre.

It is proposed that all graduates of the National Farm School here, of which Dr. Krauskopf is president, be sent to untenanted places in California and other fertile acreages in the west, largely as an experiment. By working collectively and in large numbers, as proposed by the plan, the trained workers would speed up production as cheaply as if Japanese labor were employed and with better results, Dr. Krauskopf said.

J. R. Howard, President of American Farm Bureau Federation,
To Be Main Speaker

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 8.—With the election of delegates to the second annual convention of the Indiana Federation of Farmers' Associations completed in practically every county of the state, officers of the organization have been working overtime in an effort to make the affair the most successful meeting of farmers ever held in Indiana. Advance information received at headquarters is to the effect that many of the county organizations expect to send large delegations to the convention in addition to the regular accredited voting delegates. All of the meetings will be held at the Masonic Temple auditorium, located at North and Illinois streets, the opening session being scheduled for 10 a. m. on the morning of Nov. 15.

The credentials committee will meet at the Temple an hour earlier than the opening session to examine the certificates of election of the delegates and alternates and to issue badges. Following the convening of the convention proper, President John G. Brown will appoint a committee on resolutions and a nominating committee which will be followed by the President's address. The remainder of the business for the morning session will include the report of the committee on credentials, the roll call by districts and the reports of Lewis Taylor, general secretary, and E. E. Reynolds, state treasurer. The report of the latter will include a certified accountant's report of the financial condition of the state organization along with an itemized accounting for all money received and expended by that body.

The afternoon session is to open at 1:30 p. m. with an address by J. R. Howard, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, followed by a report of the special committee on constitution and by-laws. Adjournment of the afternoon session is to follow the report of George C. Bryant on the live stock survey of the state. At both morning and afternoon sessions President Brown will preside.

Everett McClure, first vice-president of the organization, is to preside at the evening session which is to be featured by an address on the part of Mrs. Chas. W. Sewell, of Benton County. Mrs. Sewell is widely known about the state for her activities in extension and home economics work and is a fluent speaker. H. C. Reid, state organizer will then make his report.

The second day of the convention, November 16, is to open at 9 a. m. with Maurice Douglas, second vice-president presiding. The first business is to be the reports of the grain, live stock and resolutions committees, in addition to a report of P. C. Ohler, live stock marketing agent of the Federation. Following a round table discussion on the aims and plans of the state organization a group meeting of the representatives of the even number districts is to be held for the purpose of electing district directors for the ensuing year.

President Brown will preside at the final meeting to be held in the afternoon which is to be opened by an address by G. I. Christie, of Purdue University. The address is to be followed by the report of the election of the new district directors and the report of the nominating committee for state offices. State officers to be elected include president and the two vice-presidents. In addition directors and delegates to the national convention of the American Farm Bureau Federation are to be elected. A call for a meeting of the new board of directors of the state Federation is to be issued which will be followed by adjournment.
